

FOR WEB SITE GUESTS AND MEMBERS, EarthWalk Alliance (EWA) offers you these services and opportunities:

- Intrapersonal Development for those seeking deeper self-awareness and inner growth we offer: the “Journey Reflection” blog site, our Wells Library collection, , and the Presentation Series which includes our Trillium Dialogue workshops
- Presentation Series – a EWA produced series of live presentation talks and workshops pioneering the joining of Spirit, People, and Purpose, to Planet.
- Library Resources – a gift from the New Monk Project, the Wells library offers opportunities for individuals to enrich their knowledge on topics helping make person to planet connections.
- Elder/Youth Community “Caravan Village” and “Tree Perch” Information and Resources – community design resources for those looking for alternative ways to live with dignity, personal autonomy, and connectedness with right livelihood choices – this applies to both young adults, retirees, and second carrier people.
- Links to Affiliated Organizations – provides convenient URL connections to organizations seen as aligned with our mission.
- Academic Scholarships for young adults earning associate degrees in connection with sustainable and eco-restorative educational programs offered at selected community colleges in North Carolina

MEMBER ONLY BENEFITS

- Member Publication Notices and Submittals –services meant to aid members seeking help with launching their fresh writing and publication endeavors via our website.
- Member and Organizational Support for those wanting to sponsor or be associated with EWA “Presentation Series” events
- Student Member Scholarship Grants – education about the human/planet relationship is our focus. We remain committed to maintaining and expanding our Community College scholarship grant program to qualified students, and give preferential consideration to students who are EWA members (see above).

NEW MEMBER BENEFITS - What we will send you:

- New Member Gift – each newly registered person and organization can opt to receive our framed “Planetary Pledge of Allegiance” new membership gift for you to place on your desk or wall at home or office!

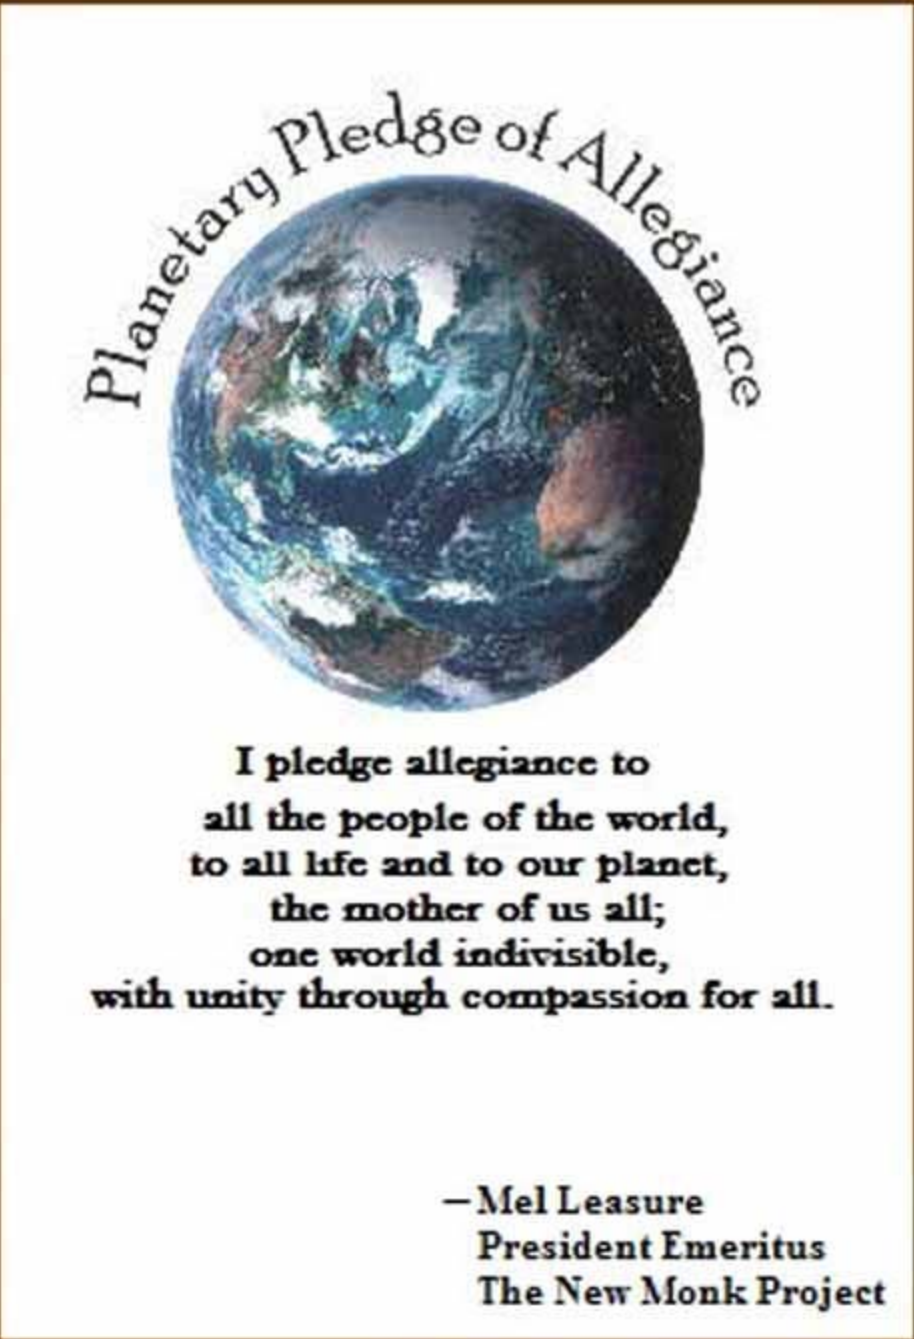

What we propose you have us do in the future:

- Member Benefits being planned for the Future – The New Monk Project plans to expand its range of services to its members; as more volunteer support is drawn to our mission, expansion of our services will manifest. Please if you believe you would like to help us expand our service to others, please consider becoming a EWA volunteer staff member – wherever your geographical location may be!

If any of the above benefits interest you, you can find out more by contacting us.

Copy of “Planetary Pledge of Allegiance”

The graphic features a central image of the Earth from space, showing blue oceans, white clouds, and brown landmasses. The title "Planetary Pledge of Allegiance" is written in a serif font, arching over the top of the globe. Below the globe is a block of text in a bold, serif font, followed by the author's name and affiliation in a smaller, regular serif font.

Planetary Pledge of Allegiance

I pledge allegiance to all the people of the world,
to all life and to our planet,
the mother of us all;
one world indivisible,
with unity through compassion for all.

—Mel Leasure
President Emeritus
The New Monk Project
